

Arria Deepwater

Writer, Speaker, Spiritual Practitioner

Arria (she/they) identifies as white privileged, disabled, queer & faithfully middle-aged. One of the misfits & mystics, Arria's path diverged from the mainstream early, leading into realms of spiritual healing, whorls of creative living, and eventually deep forests of radical rest. (The trees there are enormous!) Let's talk about writing and all sorts of creative ways to navigate a bad breakup with the modern society — and hospice its passing while we all live together, between worlds.

I believe that life is an iterative spiralling tangled mess of beauty, difficulty, wonder & sorrow. My job is to remember and honour that — especially in those moments when others are struggling.
